Open Streets Worship Service

Peavey Park

July 10, 2022

Like many churches around the world, we love to sing! Please join in as you feel moved.

Today we celebrate God's good creation and that we are located in the midst of a vibrant community! The Phillips neighborhood is a great place to live, work, play and worship. See how many neighbors you notice today.

Gathering

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Gathering Song

"Who Can Help But Celebrate?"

1. Won - ders here, won ders there. Won'der why they're ev - 'ry - where.
2. Twin - kle twinkle lit - tle star. How I won - der what you are.
3. Milk-weed flow'r, pur - ple rain, mon - arch out my win - dow pane.
4. Fa - ces light, fa - ces dark, fa - ces smil - ing in the park.
5. Time to work, time to play, time to thank God ev - 'ry day.

Who can help but cel - e - brate the beau - ties of the earth?
Light a - bove the world so high from way way back in time.
Back - yard sanc - tu - ar - y where I wor - ship ev - 'ry day.
Face a new di - rec - tion and you find a - noth - er friend.
Take some time to go take in the out - doors ev - 'ry day.

Chorus: I mean Who? Who? Who? Who can help but cel - e - brate?

Who can help but cel - e - brate the beau - ties of the earth?

“When I Needed a Neighbor”

call and response

Word

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

Reading

Luke 10:25-37

A reading from the book of Luke.

²⁵Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus.

“Teacher,” he said, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

²⁶Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?”

²⁷The lawyer answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”

²⁸And Jesus said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.”

²⁹But wanting to justify himself, the lawyer asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

³⁰Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. ³¹Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

³²So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

³³But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when the Samaritan saw him, he was moved with pity.

³⁴He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

³⁵The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.’

³⁶Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?”

³⁷The lawyer said, “The one who showed him mercy.”

Jesus said to the lawyer, “Go and do likewise.”

Sermon

Expect interaction. Tall and small worshipers, the preacher wants to hear your voice!
