Our Saviour's Lutheran Church is a dynamic community, centered in Christ, called, nurtured and sent-to celebrate, serve and do justice.

A Poem “To OSLC” by Liza Johnson

Pastor Martha

Our dear Liza Johnson grew up at Our Saviour's. She is currently serving as the Intern Pastor at Grace Lutheran Church in La Grange, IL. Liza came to Minneapolis for a couple of days last month to join in powerful clergy actions on the Day of Prayer and Fasting for Truth and Freedom. Liza wrote this poem for us. What a gift it is to be the body of Christ in such a time as this. Thanks be to God.

To OSLC

If I could make my experience one thing—
besides the violence and the loud and the fear,
the teargas and riot gear and black masks,
I would make it a love song to my church.

To the place that raised me to know love
and justice and kindness
and peace
and that we cannot be the body of Christ alone:

To the people who held my little fingers at the font,
the piano, the communion line,
who put a block under my feet at the pulpit
and lowered the singing mic to my height:

The people who radicalized me through the words of a living and loving Gospel, who prayed and dreamed that I'd be exactly who God made me to be:

To the Church that knew they were sending me out,
trusting that I would come back when called (and maybe even without being called) to join in the work of bringing revolution to broken places and love where there is hate:

To the ones in that place (you know who you are)
whether sitting in the pews or hovering over the ambo
in that Great Cloud of Witnesses:

I would make my time a love song to you.

And I would say:
I am here because of you,
I have never felt luckier to belong to you,
and to have you belong to me.

Thank you for raising me up and for calling me beloved,
so that one day (today) I could come back to call you beloved, too.

You did it all right, Church.

WOMEN'S

Retreat

Friday, Feb 20 - Sun, Feb 22

Dunrovin Retreat Center

Held in Holy Ground: Rest, Healing, and Discernment

In this season, many of us are carrying a lot.
Our city and state are living through profound tension, grief, and uncertainty.
Neighbors are hurting, communities are strained,
and the news cycle can feel relentless.
In the midst of all that is happening, we long for spaces where we can breathe, listen, and remember that we are not alone.

This 2026 Women's Retreat is an invitation into such a space.

A space for connection and rest.
A space for healing and honest conversation.
A space for discernment as we listen for what God is doing among us and within us.

Together with women from Our Saviour's and Valley of Peace, we will gather to ground ourselves in community, prayer, scripture, creativity, and quiet.

We will come as we are; joyful, weary, hopeful,
angry, grateful, grieving,
trusting that God meets us.

Retreat Details

Please use the QR Code below to register
by February 6

Please contact your pastor if you have questions or would like more information.

Adult Forums in February

9am on Sundays in the Hospitality Center

With so much unfolding in our city right now, we have decided to continue to keep forum time as 'open space' to process what is happening and how we can act and care for one another through it all.

We will also have some conversations this month that will help us renew our Reconciling in Christ (RIC) commitments. We will re-examine our Welcome Statement and re-imagine it for this moment in time. Through this process, we will learn together, grow together, and re-commit ourselves to being an open, affirming, and welcoming church for all LGBTQIA+ people – committed to full inclusion not just inside church walls but in society.

Please look to weekly updates for further information about adult forums in February.

Calvary Food Shelf is the Mission of the Month for February at Our Saviour's.

Gayle Lamb

The food shelf is now operating in challenging times. It shows its resilience to get food to those who are food insecure.

We are located at 39th and Chicago Avenue. The space is very functional and allows the food shelf to continue serving the residents of Belfry Apartments and people from the neighborhood. Appointments are now scheduled 5-6 families or individuals every 15 min. This allows our shoppers to select groceries in a respectful manner.

Calvary Food Shelf now has the job of getting food for families who are afraid to leave their homes. Volunteers are delivering food on Tuesday and Thursdays. This is in addition to those that have appointments which number 85-95 families twice a week. Food deliveries are made on Tuesdays to shut-ins.

We welcomed a new director River Brokaw in September. This is a summary sent to all of Calvary staff and volunteers.

Since September:

60 pounds of food provided to each household when they visit in person

Distributed 106,000 pounds of food to the community since September

Offered additional food distributions totaling 8,000 pounds of food in George Floyd Square with no questions asked during the SNAP benefit shutdown

The volunteers have been delivering food to those sheltered at home. About 250 food packages have been delivered each week. We have health care workers, community organizers, teachers and neighbors coming to get food supplies for families in need.

The food shelf is unique in that fresh fruit, vegetables, proteins and dairy are offered. Eggs, milk, oil, spices, salt are always needed.

Who would have thought that volunteers would need to monitor ICE agent activity to keep our customers safe. We have a protocol that is followed if ICE is in the area. Volunteers are the best. Always opportunities for volunteering.

The food shelf is primarily run by volunteers and there are opportunities for all ages to participate. The website has more information about the food shelf. calvaryfoodshelf.org. There is a link for making a monetary donation. All are welcome. Please contact Gayle Lamb lamb1300@comcast.net or Maryellen Skan if you have questions or are interested in volunteering.

OSLC Annual Meeting – Sunday, February 8 at 11:30

Samantha Heaton

Please mark your calendars for our Annual Congregational Meeting, to be held on Sunday, February 8 at 11:30 a.m., following worship. At this meeting, we will gather to do the important business of the congregation, including the approval of the annual budget and the election of council and committee members. A mailing with additional information will be sent in advance, and you will also hear announcements during worship in the coming weeks. During the meeting, we will share samosas purchased from our Somali neighbors. Contributions toward the cost of the samosas will be welcomed at the meeting. Childcare will be provided, and we hope you will join us for this important meeting.

Property Work Day – Saturday February 28th

Nancy Nygaard Johnson

Join the Property Committee for our Work Day on Saturday February 28th from 10am to Noon. We will focus on indoor work in the kitchen and Sanctuary. Know of a project around the church that the work day volunteers could do? Let me know. The cleaning and work done is above what our cleaners are hired to do, and doesn't get done without the volunteers that come to the work day.

MANNA AND MERCY

A BRIEF HISTORY OF GOD'S UNFOLDING PROMISE TO MEND THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE

Daniel Erlander

Twin Cities: April 17-18, 2026

Northfield: April 24-25, 2026

Rev. Alan Storey is a gospel storyteller and facilitator of personal and political change. He is the author of the 2025 Andrew Murray Desmond Tutu Prize winning The bell, banners & blasphemy.

Register: alanstoreyinminnesota.org

A sliding-scale registration fee includes a Friday opening dinner, lunch on Saturday, and a copy of Manna and Mercy.

Manna and Mercy is a 100-page hand-printed paraphrase of the bible, from Genesis to Revelation -- a graphic novel of sorts, written by Pastor Daniel Erlander with imagination, clarity, humor, and cartoons. Built around the twin themes of food sharing and forgiveness, it helps us to look at scripture with new eyes and rediscover how it can become a means of life and grace rather than destruction and death.

The Bible is meant to be an instrument of God to enable abundant life for God's creation. Sadly, through the ages it has been read and interpreted in such a way that it has been used as an instrument of human domination and death—to cheer on the crusades, support slavery, advocate Apartheid, glorify genocide, sanction sexism, bless war and worship prosperity in the face of the poor, just to name just a few horrors of our human history.

Using Dan's Manna and Mercy book, South African pastor Alan Storey has developed a weekend retreat to take a fresh look at scripture through the interpretive lens of Jesus' life, death and resurrection and God's overall call for each one of us to partner with God in mending this fractured world. The hope is that after we have done so, our interpretations and use of the scriptures will be truly liberating and life-enabling for all of creation.

Youth Gathering

We had to cancel our road trip to Luther College to attend the Rev. Yehiel Curry, Presiding Bishop of the ELCA, keynote address for the 2026 Martin Luther King Jr. Day celebration that was scheduled on Monday, January 19 due to the high presence of federal agents in our city. Please look for more details in the weekly update, emails or WhatsApp group of meeting time and location in February. We would like to start planning for the Civil Rights tour in Alabama this summer and holding caring and brave conversations to process what has been happening in our city and state.

The Spiritual Journey in These IC-E Times

Amy Blumenshine

Many of us are acting outside of our comfort zones as we seek to care for our neighbors. Particularly disturbing is when those caregivers are brutally killed –or otherwise hurt. Compounding the disturbance is that the harm is often perpetrated in public with zero accountability. Even worse is that we the caregivers are footing the bill for their outrageous signing bonuses, Delta flights, Hilton lodgings, and Enterprise car rentals.

I give thanks for our spiritual community in these times. It is so important that we remember who WE are.

Together we renounce these harms as contrary to the will of God, never accepting them. Together we affirm that children are precious; they deserve to go to school without fear, and that their bond with their parents deserves protecting. Together we affirm that life is precious.

And as we care for each other, we ask for divine help and guidance—and pay attention as it comes. I’ve decided to leave my angel Christmas decorations posted in place for the time being. They represent for me the Great Cloud of Witnesses connected to our Great Crowd of Witnesses showing up for our neighbors. We clearly need videos from multiple angles as we counter lies spread about our activities and purpose.

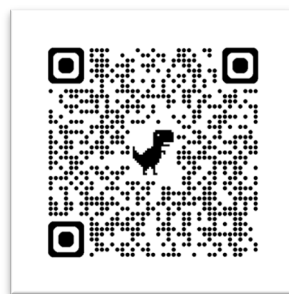

Imagine with me the angel wings on each one of the legal observers. We too have the capacity to flock and murmur as individuals swap out the lead.

Kudos to all who participated in whatever way in the Day of Prayer and Fasting for Truth and Freedom January 23. May our activities that day of cold clarity encourage others to stand against authoritarianism. And blessings be upon the caring legacy of Alex Pretti.

Kudos to the brilliant leadership of responding to his killing by gathering in neighborhood candlelight vigils.

My monthly article usually includes peacemaking action steps, and there are indeed many in circulation. Let me encourage you to ask for help in your personal extended circles of connection across the miles. Be sure that people away from our troubles understand what we are going through and resist as they can – so that they don’t have to be next.

Encourage them to participate with their faith communities in the Palm Sunday Path of countering authoritarianism. Use the QR Code to read more:

From time to time, light a candle to help you commune with the mystery and opportunity of this historic moment, remembering that we are never alone.

We are a gentle, loving people and with each action, we seek to co-create our beloved community.
